Strategy	The reader...	Modules	Comprehension Cards
Comprehension Monitoring	is aware when meaning breaks down.	1	Fix-Up Strategies
Retelling	recalls information in nonfiction. retells story elements in fiction.	2, 3, 4, *5, 6	STP, B-M-E, Five Finger Retell *Key Words Who-What Shared Retelling
Developing Vocabulary	understands the meaning of a phrase or word.	7, 29	Vocabulary Strategies Reciprocal Teaching Word Solving Strategies
Asking and Answering Questions	asks and answers questions based on details in the text.	8, 9, 29	Green Questions Red Questions Reciprocal Teaching
Identifying Main Idea and Details	is able to identify the main idea/central message and most important details.	10, 11, 12	V.I.P. Fiction V.I.P. Nonfiction Main Ideas/Details
Analyzing Characters	can identify character traits and motives.	13, 14, 15, 16, 17	Track the Characters Feelings Character-Trait-Evidence Who-What-Why (#16 no card-Use Action-Motivation Chart)
Analyzing Relationships	expresses an understanding of relationships between people, events or ideas (e.g., cause-effect or compare-contrast).	18, 19	Yellow Questions Cause-Effect Compare- Contrast Create a Socio-gram
Inferring	makes an inference or draws a conclusion from details in the text.	20, 21, 22, 23 29	Make an Inference Fiction, Make an Inference Nonfiction (Actions), Make an Inference (Thoughts) Draw Conclusions, Reciprocal Teaching
Summarizing	synthesizes information and prepares a condensed account that covers the main points.	24, 25, 29	SWBS Key Word Summary Reciprocal Teaching Problem Solution
Evaluating	understands the theme, author's purpose, point of view, and fact vs. opinion, and gathers evidence to support the author's point.	26	Thesis- Proof Evaluative Questions Problem Solution SOAR
Using Text Features	uses the table of contents, headings, bold words, sidebars, pictures and captions, and diagrams and maps to clarify and extend his or her understanding of the topic.	27	No Card
Understanding Text Structure	understands how the author organizes the information within the text: description, problem/solution, cause and effect, compare/contrast, and time order/sequence.	28	No Card